Sir,

I have the honour to enclose copy of letter No. ROC 781/33-34 dated 21-3-34 from the Registrar, High Court of Mysore intimating that it is not safe to allow the concession of recovery of Security Deposits in instalments to the officials of the Judicial Department including Magistrates' Courts. He has further intimated that the High Court Rules of Practice and amendments thereto sanctioned by Government in No. G. 18642/cts 158-19-2 dated 14-2-1920, No. P 3170 cts 154-25-2 dated 23-12-1925 and order No. P 3399-400/cts 103-31-1 dated 21-12-1931 do not contemplate security amounts being paid in monthly instalments. A correction slip in the following form, to Rule 7 C of the annexure to Mysore Account Code Vol. I will be issued, if approved.

Correction Slip.

Insert the following as an exception to rule 7 (c) of para 7 to Annexure of Mysore Civil Account Code Vol. I. as amended by C.S.No. 73 dated 9-3-28.

Exception.

The concession relating to monthly deductions at 10% of pay does not apply to the officials of the Judicial Department including Magistrates' Courts.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
your most obedient servant,

A. N. Raghavachar
Comptroller.

Copy of letter No. 781/33-34 dated 22nd August 1934 from the Registrar, High Court of Mysore, Bangalore to the Comptroller to the Government of Mysore, Bangalore.

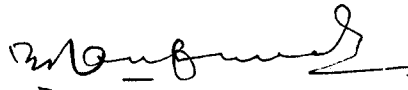

.....

I have the honour to state that under Criminal rule of Practice No. 87 dated 17th Feb. 1920 as amended by corrigendum dated 4th Jan 20 which is sanctioned by Government, the Head Ministerial officer of every Special Magistrate's court has to furnish security either by bond with deposit of title deeds of immovable property or by deposit of cash or Government Promissory Notes. But the District Magistrate of Bangalore reports that the Head Clerk of the First Magistrate's court Bangalore, who has to furnish security to the extent of Rs 250/- has been permitted by him to furnish the same in monthly instalments as allowed by rule 7 (c) of the Annexure of the Mysore Civil Accounts Code Vol I. The rules - vide rule 24 at page 10 and rules 3 and 4 at page 41 of the General Rules and orders, Civil Volume II regarding the security to be furnished by the Head Munshi, Cash Nazir, process Nazir and Amins in the Civil Courts are similar to the above rules on the Criminal side and in no case the amount of security to be furnished by the officials of the civil and criminal courts exceeds Rs 500/- If the concession referred to by the District Magistrate i.e., paying the security by monthly instalments at 10 p.c. of the official's pay is extended to the court, every official who has to furnish security may claim its advantage as a rule. In view of the recent defalcations in the City Magistrate's Court, Bangalore and the Special Magistrate's Court French Rocks, and also in some of the civil courts, it does not appear to be safe to allow the concession in question in all cases.

In these circumstances, I request you to be so good as to intimate if the concession provided in rule 7 (c) of the annexure to M.C.A.C. Volume I is applicable to courts where special departmental rules on the subject already exist.

Copy.
